

NEW FACTORS APPEARING IN W. VA. POLITICS

Lee Ott's Named Added to List of Possible Senatorial Candidates.

HALLANAN BOOM GROWING

Wiles and Rider Talked of as Entries in Next Race for Governor.

By CLIDE H. EAST.
CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 18.—Three outstanding developments during the last few days have given political gossip as well as party leaders food for thought, as well as talk, and incidentally placed before the public a new prospective candidate for the United States Senate.

First in importance to Republicans is the proposed reorganization of the public service commission, which will be undertaken in the near future by Governor Morgan, and which involves the resignation of two of the three members of the commission.

Another development is the "boomlet" for Lee Ott, workmen's compensation commissioner, as a possible candidate for the nomination to succeed Senator Howard Sutherland.

During the last day or two, also, the movement to induce Walter S. Hallanan, State tax commissioner, to get into the race for the Senate has increased in strength and it is believed now he would accept the nomination if it were offered to him.

Gubernatorial Outlook.

The public service commission developments may have a direct bearing on the gubernatorial slate three years hence. It is declared, by persons close to executive circles, that George R. C. Wiles, chairman of the commission, and E. G. Rider, a member, will resign during the next few weeks and that their places will be filled with two Republicans, one of whom will be chosen chairman.

Judge Wiles has wanted to resign for the last six months and only recently it was rumored he would return to private practice before his term expired on May 31, 1922. Hence, it was not surprising to political observers when Governor Morgan asked for his resignation.

Judge Rider's term expired May 31, 1921, but he remained on the commission at the request of Governor Morgan, until his successor could be chosen. That the reorganization of the commission may be perfected, the governor will relieve Judge Rider about May 1, while Judge Wiles will step out about April 1.

Judge Wiles and Judge Lewis are Democrats and Judge Rider is the only Republican on the commission. It is expected Judge Lewis will remain as a member, as his term does not expire until June 1, 1922.

Poultry Clubs Plan
Show at Petersburg

PETERSBURG, Va., March 18.—One of the big features of the Petersburg fair this year will be a poultry demonstration, to begin with the egg and end with the broiler on the table, garnished and served, according to announcement made by K. N. Ellis, agricultural agent of the chamber of commerce. The demonstration will be made by girls and boys of the poultry clubs in the adjacent counties, relay teams of whom will be trained this summer. At least half of one of the big buildings at the fair grounds will be given over to this demonstration.

Jury Refuses to Indict Boy Who Killed Father

WHEELING, W. Va., March 18.—An Ohio county grand jury this week refused to indict August Hanks, twelve, on a presentment of murder for the death of his father.

Despite the fact the boy declared openly he shot his father, William Hanks, to death in their home, here. The lad claims he shot in defense of his mother. Mrs. Hanks had arrived home late from attending a motion picture show with an elderly lady, a boarder.
